

Some General Reasons to Raise a Flag for a Student in OnTrack

- Absences from scheduled class meetings.
- Failure to submit homework or assignments.
- Poor performance on quizzes or tests.
- Lack of participation or engagement.

Kudos can also be shared through OnTrack to recognize a student's good work and/or improvement.

OnTrack FAQs:

1. What is an Academic Progress Report (APR) and why am I being asked to complete it?

Beginning Fall 2021, Instructors who have Undergraduate students registered in their course(s) will be asked to complete an APR through OnTrack at designated points each semester, each of which is aligned with academic deadlines and milestones.

2. Can I use OnTrack to provide feedback about a student outside of the APR periods? YES!!

Instructors have the ability to view all students enrolled in their course(s) in OnTrack and share feedback for any student through OnTrack at anytime during the semester.

What Happens After I Raise a Flag or Kudos in OnTrack?

- For Academic and Attendance Concerns, the student will receive an e-mail notification of your concern, including the exact comments you have provided in OnTrack. The student's Advisor will also receive an e-mail notification about the concern and will conduct follow-up outreach to the student, offering additional support and guidance.
